MAY 2020 // 425MAGAZINE.COM

BY ZOE BRANCH, CARLISLE HUNTINGTON, MELISSA MCCARTHY, MADELEINE PORTER, SHELBY ROWE MOYER, AND JAIMIE WATTS

We asked readers to tell us about their favorite people, places, and things on the Eastside. Online voting was in effect for several months, and thousands of votes were tallied.

There are many new winners this year, and some companies that have made the list several times.

Thank you for taking the time to cast your votes and help us create this ultimate guide to everything awesome on the Eastside. And the winners are:

SPA

Salish Lodge & Spa

This spa embodies peak serenity: The idyllic location perched in the forest above Snoqualmie Falls is only enhanced by the soaking pools, soft robes, and myriad massage and facial options available. SNOQUALMIE

Crossroads Bellevue has been Serving the Eastside Since 1962

And we look forward to serving you again soon.

In the meantime, we wish good health and safety to all of our friends in the community.

GOLF COURSE

The Golf Club at Newcastle

The Golf Club at Newcastle not only has two championship, 18-hole public courses, extensive practice facilities, and a 44,000-square-foot clubhouse; it also offers panoramic views of Lake Washington, Mount Rainier, and the Olympic and Cascade mountain ranges. NEWCASTLE

PEOPLE WATCHING

Bellevue Square

If there's one place on the Eastside where you're pretty much guaranteed to spot some interesting characters, it's at Bellevue Square. Home to more than 200 retail, restaurant, and entertainment options, it's always bustling with all types of people. Grab a bite and observe. BELLEVUE

BOWLING

Lucky Strike

Located in Bellevue's Lincoln Square, Lucky Strike offers a modern bowling alley experience with a nightlife vibe, handcrafted cocktails, dance floors, an arcade, and 16 bowling lanes. Add a live deejay and unique décor, and you've got the best spot in town for a fun Friday night. BELLEVUE

NW TRAVEL DESTINATION

San Juan Islands

The San Juans are far enough away from the Eastside to make them a vacation destination, but close enough to be convenient to access. Catch lots of hikes, family-friendly activities, and opportunities to relax on each island, all of which make them the perfect spots to visit.

HOTEL

Salish Lodge & Spa

Looking for a luxurious experience, complete with a gorgeous view, fine dining, and a spa? Salish Lodge & Spa has all of that and more, offering romance at its finest within 25 miles of downtown Bellevue.

SNOQUALMIE

HIKE

Mount Si

This difficult, 7.9-mile hike near North Bend is worth the effort: You can bring your leashed four-legged friend and will probably get to see some gorgeous wildflowers. Thousands of people have reviewed the trail on alltrails.com, almost all of them leaving a 5-star review.
